The Pronghorn Ranch is a scenic 18,000 acre working private cattle ranch, which offers great hunting opportunities each fall. The Outfitters Great Grandfather, Tom Robinson homesteaded this area of Eastern Wyoming prairie that teems with a variety of wildlife, including numerous herds of Antelope.

 Antelope hunt rates for 2010: Three day Rifle hunt or a four day Archery hunt is $1,200. A 50% deposit is required ($600.00 will reserve agreed upon dates). Remaining fee will be due 30 days before your hunt. Left over licenses are available for purchase from the WY Game and Fish web site after July 7, 2009 some of the years.

 Hunt Area and Dates: Antelope hunt area 29, archery dates are September 1-30, and rifle dates are October 1-15.

 Lodging: Included in the fee are accommodations in a rustic two room country school house which has been outfitted with a wood stove, a bunk room with beds, cooking facilities with a stove and refrigerator, and a restroom. Electrical RV hookups are available. Town is about 8 miles away if you would like to go in for meals and refreshments.

 Not included: Meals, transportation to the ranch and Wyoming Game and Fish licenses. For information, see online Wyoming Game and Fish Department; or call 307-777-4600.

HUNTING GEAR & EQUIPMENT PACKING LIST

Below are our recommendations for a typical 4-5 day hunting trip. On more lengthy hunts, add a change of clothing for additional comfort. Special attention should be paid to outerwear. These should be as noiseless as possible so please leave clothing made with nylon material at home. Weather is unpredictable and can range from snow and 0 degrees F up to 70 degrees F, so best to be prepared for anything. Please confine personal items to two medium-sized duffel bags and one gun case.
